The Dishonest Kid

Characters : May – the dishonest kid
Mary – the kid’s friend
Goddess of the Drinking Fountain

Setting : Near the drinking fountain in the street

Scene 1

May and Mary are shopping together near the drinking fountain along the street.

Enter May in the T-shirt and Mary in the hat.

May : Oh, no! I dropped a ring in the drinking fountain just now.

Mary : Poor you! But it’s getting dark. I need to go home now.

May : It’s OK. See you tomorrow. Now how can I find my ring?

Exit Mary. Enter the Goddess with the long hair.

Goddess : I am the Goddess of the Drinking Fountain. You seem to have a problem.

May : I dropped something into the drinking fountain.

Goddess : No problem. It’s a piece of cake. I’ll be right back.

Then, the Goddess goes down to the drinking fountain. A moment later, she shows up with a gold ring.

Goddess : Is this gold ring yours?

May : Yes, it is. I dropped my gold ring earlier.

Goddess : Are you sure? Let me ask you again. Is this really yours?

May : I'm telling you the truth. The gold ring is mine.

Goddess : You are too greedy. I'll turn you into a cat.

May : Oh no! Help! I'll never lie again.
