Are You Honest?

Characters : Mary – the dishonest woodcutter

Ken – the woodcutter’s friend

Tree Spirit

Setting : In the jungle

Scene 1

Mary and Ken are chatting with each other near a big tree.

Enter Mary in a black cap and Ken in a pair of brown boots.

Mary : Oh, no! A gust of wind blew my cap just now.

Ken : Poor you! But it’s getting dark. I need to go home now.
Sorry! I can’t help you. Goodbye!

Mary : It’s OK. See you tomorrow. So now how can I find my cap?

Exit Ken. Enter the Tree Spirit with a pair of wings.

Tree Spirit : I am the Tree Spirit in this jungle. You seem to have a problem. Can I help you?

Mary : A gust of wind blew my cap onto the tree, but I don’t know where is it now. Can you help me find it?

Tree Spirit : No problem. It’s a piece of cake. I’ll be right back.

Then, the Tree Spirit goes up to the trees. A moment later, he shows up with a gold necklace.

Tree Spirit : Is this gold necklace yours?

Mary : (with a greedy look) Yes, it is. I lost this gold necklace earlier.

Tree Spirit : Are you sure? Let me ask you again. Is this gold necklace really yours?

Mary : I'm telling you the truth. This gold necklace is mine, and please give it to me right now!

Tree Spirit : (Starting to be angry) You are too greedy. I'll turn you into an ugly frog, and you will never be able to turn back to your real self!

Mary : (sadly) Oh no! Help! I'll never lie again.
