The Lost Hat

Characters : Leon – the dishonest child

Peach – Leon’s friend

God of Trees

Setting : A tree house near the river

Scene 1

Leon and Peach are tidying their house near the river.

Enter Leon in a jumper and jeans and Peach in a pink dress and with a ring.

Leon: : Oh, no! I dropped my hat into the river just now. It’s my birthday present.

Peach: : Poor you! But it’s getting dark. I need to go home now. My mum called me many times. I’m sorry I can’t help you.

Leon: : It’s OK. See you tomorrow. Now how can I find my hat?

Exit Peach. Enter the God of Trees with ten silver rings.

God of Trees : I am the God of Trees. People also called me the God of Rings because I am wearing many rings. I’m thinking should I wear ten more rings on my toes.

Leon : (Speechless)

God of Trees : OK, we come back to the topic. You seem to have a problem.

Leon : Yeah, I dropped my hat into the river by accident.

God of Trees : No problem. It's a piece of cake. I'll be right back.

Then, the God of Trees goes down to the river. A moment later, he shows up with a silver ring.

God of Trees : Is this silver ring yours?

Leon: : Yes, it is. I dropped my silver ring earlier.

God of Trees: : Are you sure? Let me ask you again. Is this really yours?

Leon: : I'm telling you the truth. It's mine.

God of Trees: : You are too greedy. I give you the last chance. I'll bring you back to three minutes ago. If you lie again, I'll turn you into my eleventh ring and put you on my toes.
