The Naïve Eric

They did not know what to do. Then the genie had an idea. 'We should cross the enormous mountain and the dangerous lake. Then we can find the wizard. He can help you become normal.' So they set off finding the wizard. After some hard challenges, they swam across the dangerous lake and climbed the tall mountain. Finally, they found the wizard's home.

Eric and the genie came to the wizard's home, Eric cried impatiently, 'Hello? Anybody here?' The wizard appeared slowly out of the room. Eric continued, 'Look! I am as tall as a house! Please help! The wizard thought for a while, 'Hmm...Yes, I can help you but it may not help you become normal.' Eric wanted to try. 'It's ok! I want to try,' said Eric bravely. The wizard said a magic word and disappeared.

In the end, Eric turned into a little boy who was as small as a thumb and went home sadly. Eric learnt that he should not trust strangers easily, especially a genie.
